ABSTRACT

This is the fifth module of 10 in the German Headstart program. Each of the 3 units in the module contains objectives, exercises, and a self-evaluation quiz. In addition, there are several supplementary exercises and self-evaluations. The objective of this module is to enable the student to use and understand: (1) courtesy expressions; (2) time expressions denoting length, such as hour, day, week, month; (3) other time expressions such as "today," "tomorrow," and calendar dates; and (4) payment by traveler's checks. The module is based on three basic situations: taking a taxi cab, getting a hotel room, and checking out of a hotel. (AMH)

MODULE 5

INTRODUCTION

This module is based on three basic situations: taking a taxi cab (Unit 1), getting a hotel room (Unit 2), and checking out of a hotel (Unit 3).

You will learn to express yourself in these three situations and to understand what Germans would say to you. This includes courtesy expressions such as "have a nice weekend," "have a nice evening," or "have fun" (Unit 1); time expressions denoting length, such as hour, day, week, month (Unit 2); time expressions such as "today," "tomorrow," and calendar dates (Unit 3); and payments by traveler's checks (Unit 3).

You will practice mostly with the tape. Imitate the German speakers as best you can. Speak loudly and clearly when you are asked to say something in German.

UNIT I

OBJECTIVES

When you complete this module, you will be able to:

a. Ask where a bus (or streetcar) is going, and find out if you are correctly informed about its destination.

b. Tell a cabdriver where you want to go, what kind of luggage you have, and where you want him to stop.

c. Ask about taxi fare.

d. Use the words "your" and "my" with objects.

e. Express and respond to expressions like "Have a nice weekend."

EXERCISES

Mike: Take me to the Europa Hotel, please.

Cabdriver: Do you have luggage?

Mike: Only a travel bag.

Mike: Please, stop in front of the entrance.

Cabdriver: Yes, sir.

Mike: How much is it?
(Literally, "How much does that make?")

Cabdriver: Exactly 18 marks. Here is your travel bag.

Mike: Thank you. Have a nice weekend.

Cabdriver: Thank you, the same to you.

2 UNIT

OBJECTIVES

When you complete this unit, you will be able to:

a. Talk with a hotel clerk about a room and its price.

b. Explain how long you plan to stay.

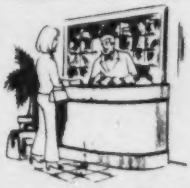
EXERCISES

AT A HOTEL

Jane:	Do you have a vacancy? (lit. "a room free")
Desk clerk:	Yes, madam. How long do you want to stay?
Jane:	One night. How much is it?
Desk clerk:	A single room with shower costs 68 marks. A double room with bath or shower costs 80 marks.*
Jane:	Oh, that's expensive. Do you have a single without bath or shower?
Desk clerk:	Yes, that costs 52 marks.
Jane:	Including breakfast?
Desk clerk:	Yes, naturally.
Jane:	O.K., I'll take the single without bath.
Desk clerk:	Please fill out the registration form.
Jane:	Fine. And where is my room?
Desk clerk:	On the 3rd floor, room 23. Here is your key.
Jane:	Thank you very much.

*A "single room" in Germany means a single bed; a "double room," a double bed. If you are alone and want to sleep in a double bed, you will have to ask for a "double room."

IM HOTEL



Jane:	Haben Sie ein Zimmer frei?
Empfangschef:	Ja, gnädige Frau. Wie lange wollen Sie bleiben?
Jane:	Eine Nacht. Wieviel kostet das?
Empfangschef:	Einzelzimmer mit Dusche kostet 68 Mark, Doppelzimmer mit Bad oder Dusche kostet 80 Mark.
Jane:	Oh, das ist teuer. Haben Sie ein Einzelzimmer ohne Bad oder Dusche?
Empfangschef:	Ja, das kostet 52 Mark.
Jane:	Mit Frühstück?
Empfangschef:	Ja, natürlich.
Jane:	Gut, ich nehme das Einzelzimmer ohne Bad.
Empfangschef:	Füllen Sie bitte das Anmeldeformular aus.
Jane:	Gern. Und wo ist mein Zimmer?
Empfangschef:	Im zweiten Stock,* Zimmer 23. Hier ist Ihr Schlüssel.
Jane:	Danke sehr.

EXERCISE 17.

Wie lange wollen Sie bleiben?
können
möchten

*The ground floor in Germany is called Parterre. The floor above it is called the "first floor," above that the "second floor," etc. This is true not only for office buildings, hotels, etc., but also for private homes.

SELF-EVALUATION QUIZ

PART I.

This part consists of ten German sentences for you to translate orally into English. If you make any mistakes, review the conversation and check the "Guide for Review" before you continue with the remainder of the quiz. Start the tape.

PART II.

You will have nine situations explained to you in English. For each of these situations you will hear three German expressions. Select the German expression that is most appropriate to the situation by writing A, B, or C on a separate piece of paper. When you have finished, check your answers with the key at the end of the Self-evaluation Quiz. If you made any mistakes, make a note of the item number and continue with Part III. Start the tape again.

1. You want to find out if a hotel room is available. What would you say to a desk clerk?

2. You want to tell a desk clerk that you would like a single room without a bath. What would you say?

3. You want to say that you are going to stay one night. What would you say?

4. You want to say that the room is expensive. What would you say?

5. You want to tell the desk clerk that you'll take the room. What would you say?

6. You want to find out how much a double room without a bath costs. What would you say?

7. You want to say that you would like to stay in Bonn one week. What would you say?

8. You want to say that you can stay an hour. What would you say?

9. You want to say that you are going to stay in Germany for two months. What would you say?

PART III.

You will be given eight directions. Say the appropriate sentence or question in German during the time provided. When you hear "STOP," stop speaking, listen to the tape, and check what you said. If you didn't know what to say in the time provided, replay this part until you can respond without hesitation, then check the "Guide for Review." Start the tape now.

1. Ask a desk clerk in a hotel if there is a vacancy.
2. Tell a desk clerk that you would like a single room with a bath.
3. Say that you would like to stay one night.
